Dear All,

This week

This week we had an open morning for years 3 to 6, I hope all of you that came, enjoyed seeing the school at work. On Wednesday a sports coach from Kent County Cricket came in and gave a one-hour lesson each to Years 3 to 6. The coach played some different games and the children really enjoyed it.

Today was Neverland's Class (Y3) assembly. It demonstrated many different curriculum areas, all the children spoke out and the music was amazing. It was a real pleasure to watch.

Years 2, 4 and 6 trip to the seaside on July 5th

If you wish your child to go to the seaside then please return your letters by Monday June 17th. The payments will be on Parent Pay by June 20th.

Open morning for Nursery to Year 2

On Thursday June 20th we will have an open morning for Nursery to Year 2. Open morning begins at 9.30, ends at 11.30 and a visit to a class is limited to 20 minutes. When you arrive, you may need to wait if the class is already very busy. Please remember this is not an opportunity to talk to the class teacher, as they will be busy.

Important Dates for your Diary
